WIZ KHALIFA'S OFFICIAL "DEAL OR NO DEAL" TOUR STOPS IN SACRAMENTO, CA

Éclat Media Group, LLC and "The Royaltee Radio Show" are proud to be the host of Wiz Khalifa's "Deal or No Deal" official tour during its stop in Sacramento, California. Wiz Khalifa will be supported by Fashawn, Jasmine Solano, Willie the Kid with Lee Bannon, Chuuwee with Lee Bannon, and Klappa Kid. The concert will be held on Wednesday, May 12, 2010 at the historic Colonial Theater located at 3522 Stockton Blvd, Sacramento, CA. Doors will open at 6pm and the concert will start promptly at 7pm. Tickets are $15, presale, and are available now at ticketleap.com and all Dimple Records stores. This is an all ages event.

Wiz Khalifa has proven himself to be one of hip-hop's rising stars. A master of internet social networking, Wiz has created a major following of fans that can connect with him almost instantly on various mediums. This Pittsburg, PA native is creating culture by simply being himself; tattoos and all. Since his separation with Warner Brother Records in early 2009, Wiz has become increasingly popular in the underground hip-hop scene on the Indie label, Rostrum Records. His sophomore album "Deal or No Deal" which was released November 24, 2009, peaked at number one on the iTunes Hip-Hop chart. Wiz Khalifa was also recently featured as one of ten "freshmen" in the March edition of XXL Magazine. "XXL's Freshmen Class of 2010" is a list of the most promising up and comers in hip-hop and the buzz around him has only gotten stronger.

The supporting acts of the "Deal or No Deal Tour" have also made significant splashes in hip-hop. Fashawn, also featured on this year's Freshman class list in XXL Magazine, is "breathing life through hip-hop from Fresno [CA]" says, The Smoking Section, a popular hip-hop blog. Jasmine Solano, a DJ, is proving that women can thrive in this male dominated industry by focusing on your craft. Lee Bannon, a producer from Sacramento who has produced tracks for veterans like Talib Kweli and Strong Arm Steady, accompanies Willie the Kid in anticipation of their collaboration "Never a Dull Moment" to be released this summer. Lee Bannon will also accompany Chuuwee, an energetic 19-year-old who is becoming a favorite in Northern California, during his set as they perform songs from their collaborative project "Hot n' Ready" to be released early May. Klappa Kid, also a native of Sacramento, will open the show. Grammy award nominated DJ Kool Kuts will be spinning the hip-hop hits from his turntables.
